

“Au temps retrouvé”, charming house

Od Kaštela 16 Dubrovnik Old Town

“Au temps retrouvé” is a centuries-old house, located on a quaint, quiet street within the city walls and overlooking the Adriatic Sea. Less than 100 meters from the house a small gateway through the city wall will lead you down to the crystal clear sea and to the open air bar, Buza II, with the most beautiful view the city has to offer. A few steps further down a bathing area invites you to refresh yourself in the cool water, to go swimming or snorkelling. The house has been lovingly renovated and the result is a combination of modern & rustic, retaining many charming features such as the stone fireplace in the kitchen and original exposed wooden beams which is typical in Dalmatian houses. “Au temps retrouvé” suits a small group of friends or a small family looking to enjoy their stay in a cosy and charming place.

Interior

The house consists of 3 floors. Where pupils of a Jesuit monastery once lived; there is now enough room for 5 people to relax or read. The ground floor consists of a kitchen decorated in a rustic style and a dining room for 6. The 1st floor holds a bedroom with double bed, a sitting room with futon that can sleep 2 guests, and a small bathroom with handheld shower. The 2nd floor has a bedroom with a double bed, a bathroom with handheld shower and a 3rd bedroom with a double bed (this room has not been completely renovated yet, so it is used as an extra room for children). The house has A/C in each room and there is wireless internet for the business traveller or for catching up with family back home. The house offers a fantastic view over the roofs of the historic centre with their traditional, handmade, red roof tiles. When you look towards the old city wall, the orange and pomegranate trees in the neighbouring garden will wet your appetite for Mediterranean fruit and the delicious Dalmatian cuisine. It seems that time has stopped while you stay at “Au temps retrouvé” and as its name suggests, you will appreciate to find back the “Old time” and enjoy the simple pleasures that Dubrovnik has to offer. Whether you are a couple, a small family or friends travelling together, “Au temps retrouvé” is a fantastic choice to fully experience a special and authentic stay in Dubrovnik.
